

4 / 7 / 20

Transdisciplinary Live
Session

4/7/20 Transdisciplinary Study 2:00pm - Tuesday

Agenda:

- Review expectations for responses
- Review a little bit about the article
- Watch a video together

What do you remember about how you write responses?

- Preview your questions
- While you read, you need to text, code, and annotate
 - ↳ looks a little different online → How?!
 - ↳ Note taking
 - ↳ instead of circling words we don't know, use Google Dictionary

-How to Note-Take :

- Neat enough to use
- track sources
- Not complete sentences
- Not copied paragraphs
- Can make a chart/organizer
- Use Headings
 - bullet
 - points

- Restating the Question
- Answer!
- Cite/evidence
- Elaborate/Explain

EXTRA CREDIT!

make your own poster of these notes that you use to write your responses!

Assignment: José Rial

•go to GoFormative to see the questions

-can't answer #2 and #4 yet today

-respond on the GoFormative website, if unsure how to use it, attend office hours

-we will answer question #1 together: Creator's message/author's message

WATCH VIDEO: find the clickable link on Google Classroom

<https://thekidshouldseethis.com/post/alike-an-animated-short-film>

Video Discussion:

•Keep in mind the author's message while you watch. Take Notes.

•Think about what you watched, why do you think a person made this? What evidence can you cite?

Message(s):

-Don't try to change people

everyone is diverse and that is a good thing!

* - Everyone is different

- Family is important

- the son does his work creatively

he loses his color

↳ When he has to do it the regular way, he gets sad

- Title of the video is ALIKE

↳ the people were alike, but it wasn't good

↳ Everyone/everything had no color - Boring!

- Color

↳ love creates color

↳ only Dad, son, and musician had color

•Write your RACE response based on a message you choose

“One thing I miss about _____ is...” before the session ended